

Radon

Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services

Course Identification Number: 18181

Expiration Date: July 13, 2026

Education Credit: 6 Hours

Course Provider:

USCONTRACTORLICENSE LLC dba Kevin Wunderlin

P.O. Box 268

Platteville, Wisconsin 53818-0268

(608) 348-6688

www.uscontractorlicense.com

This Radon course is designed to familiarize the contractors with basic facts about Radon, how to build a Radon Resistant Building with Wisconsin specific Radon support and contact information.

This course is a distance learning or e-learning course, which allows the attendee to complete the course on their time schedule.

EXAM : 180 questions related to the Reference Materials are used to test the attendee on their comprehension of the materials. A 70% score will need to be attained in order to pass this course.

Course Type: Continuing Education

Dwelling Contractor Qualifier Certification

Topics covered in this course include: Basic Radon Facts; EPA Step by Step Guide on How to Build Radon Resistant Building, covering topics such as what is radon, what are the health effects, what are safe levels of radon, how does radon enter a building, how to reduce radon, what are radon resistant features, types of radon systems, installation guides for radon systems, activating a radon system, working with home owners, Appendix A: Architectural Drawings, Appendix B: Glossary, Appendix C: For More Information, Appendix D: State Radon Contacts; and Wisconsin Radon Information from the Wisconsin Dept. of Health Services website.

Outline of Course:

1. Basic Radon Facts
2. Building Radon Out

A Step by Step Guide on How to Build Radon Resistant

Building the Framework: Introduction
Digging Deeper: Questions and Answers
Nuts and Bolts: Installation Guide

Sold: Working with Buyers

Appendix A: Architectural Drawings

Appendix B: Glossary

Appendix C: For More Information

Appendix D: State Radon Contacts

Wisconsin Radon Information from the Wisconsin Dept. of Health Services Website